Dear Nic,

Please feel free to provide my name, number and email address to any of your potential clients that would like to gain perspective on Burger & Company and your specific character. This note is being written by a very appreciative and satisfied customer in response to your hard work as it relates to the sale of 15150 Century Drive in Dearborn, MI.

The highlights of my satisfaction come from your abilities in the following areas:

- understanding the market and the market pricing
- marketing the property with vigor
- communicating every step of the way regarding activity and interest
- coaching us on the options for handling issues

Additionally, you made yourself available each and anytime we had questions.

It is with great pleasure that I highly recommend your organization and you. I am hopeful that our paths cross again in the future.

Warm Regards,

Scott Murray
